

Concluding Remarks

Based on the arguments and amendments provided hereinabove, Applicant believes that all the claims as presently constituted are allowable over the cited art.

However, if Examiner should still have reservations, he is urged to contact Applicant by phone, thereby to attempt to work out any remaining differences.

To the extent that there is patentable subject matter disclosed in the application, and to the extent it is not covered by allowed claims, Examiner is requested -- in accordance with paragraph 707.07(j) in the Manual of Patent Examining Procedure -- to draft for Applicant a set of allowable claims covering such unclaimed allowable subject matter.
